One of the largest and strongest dramshop indemnity companies in America, and the only one in Illinois, is the Reisch Indemnity Company. They are known from one end of the State to the other, and deserve the great success they have attained.

They issue an indemnity bond completely covering all liability under Sections 5 and 9 of Chapter 43 of the Illinois statute, known as the "Dram Shop Act." This bond is so written that it automatically indemnifies the dramshop keeper, his bondsmen, the owner and lessee of the building in which the dramshop is operated; completely indemnifying each and all against all loss by any and all judgments obtained by civil prosecutions, by reason of any person sustaining damage, in person or property, or means of support, under either of said sections. Or, in other words, they defend all such suits with their attorneys at their expense from beginning to final judgment, and immediately reimburse said parties for any and all judgments obtained against them, or any of them; there being absolutely no way in which a suit may be prosecuted or judgment obtained under either of these sections, or against any or all of these parties, but what all loss thereby is fully and completely covered by their bond. The Chicago office of the Reisch Indemnity Company is at 206 Corn Exchange Bank Building, 206 La Salle street, the main offices being in Springfield.
